

The FORUM OF WOMEN IN THE ENVIRONMENTAL FIELD presents:

Networking in the Environmental Field

Wednesday, March 28, 2012 from 6:00pm-8:00pm

Hamline University – Kay Fredricks Room (3rd floor of Klas Center)

- Meet one-on-one with event sponsors.
- See how their positions are related to the environment (sustainability, CSR, education, health & safety, consulting, wetlands and more!).
- Learn about environmentally-related jobs in a variety of business sectors.
- Bring your resume. Career professionals from four different universities can offer you advice: Hamline, U of M, St. Thomas and St. Kate's.
- Talk to others who have found jobs in the environmental field.
- Exchange business practices/share your organization's environmental efforts.
- Build or refresh your network.
- Already have a job? Talk about your work/search strategies.
